Tokyo Disneyland and Tokyo DisneySea Parks
Ticket pricing as a result of Japan's consumption tax increase

URAYASU, CHIBA— Tokyo Disney Resort® announced that the admission ticket prices for Tokyo Disneyland® Park and Tokyo DisneySea® Park will change as a result of Japan's consumption tax increase to take effect April 1, 2014. The ticket prices of both Parks, from April 1, 2014, will be based on the new Japanese consumption tax rate, rounded off in the unit of 100 yen (in 1,000 yen for Annual Passports), and tax-inclusive as currently applied for the Parks' ticket pricing.

The prices for the purchase or use of other items, facilities, services, etc., at the Parks will also be impacted by the tax increase, and the new prices set will also be tax-inclusive. However, certain facilities and Guest services such as Guest Parking and Stroller & Wheelchair Rentals will not be affected, and the prices will remain unchanged, in order to ensure prompt and efficient service.
