

November 5 2008

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Publicity Division
Oriental Land Co., Ltd.

New Attraction at Tokyo Disneyland Park

URAYASU, CHIBA— Oriental Land Co., Ltd. announced that a new attraction, Mickey's PhilharMagic, will open at Tokyo Disneyland® Park in 2011. (Please see below for attraction outline.)

Mickey's PhilharMagic
Tokyo Disneyland New Attraction

Mickey's PhilharMagic is a theater-type attraction employing Disney's 3-D technology. Guests are invited into the theater for an orchestra concert, but Donald Duck causes a commotion, taking the Guests into a musical whirlwind through popular Disney films. It's a fun-filled philharmonic mayhem into the magical world of Disney, with Mickey Mouse, Donald Duck, and other Disney characters popping out of the screen to just an arm's reach away from the Guests.

Opening date:	2011 (tentative)
Location:	Fantasyland
Seating:	Approximately 450
Total capital invested:	Approximately 6 billion yen
Peripheral facility:	Merchandise shop

The new attraction, Mickey's PhilharMagic, will replace the attraction The Mickey Mouse Revue, which will close on May 25, 2009 in preparation for the new attraction.

For inquiries from the general public, please give the following contact number:
Tokyo Disney Resort Information Center 0570-00-8632 (9:00 a.m. – 7:00 p.m.)

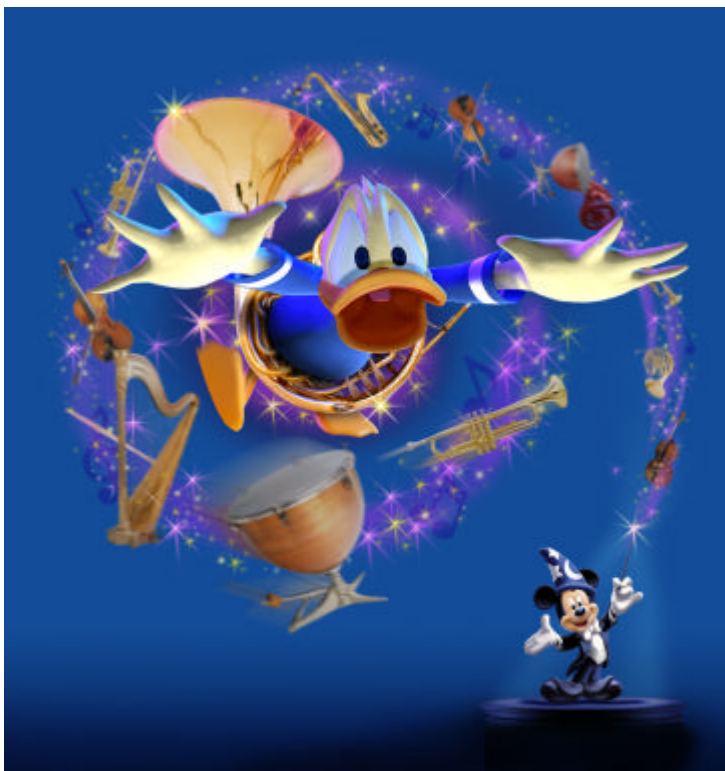

Note: The above number may not be accessible from some cell phones or IP phones.

For press inquiries, please contact:
Publicity Division, Oriental Land Co., Ltd. 047-305-5111

###

Attachment

Tokyo Disneyland New Attraction
Mickey's PhilharMagic

© Disney

Note: Photos are concept images only.