

March 17, 2010

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Publicity Department
Oriental Land Co., Ltd.

New Attraction at Tokyo DisneySea Park

URAYASU, CHIBA— Oriental Land Co., Ltd. announced that a new attraction, Jasmine's Flying Carpets, will open at Tokyo DisneySea® Park in summer 2011. (Please see below for attraction outline.)

Jasmine's Flying Carpets Tokyo DisneySea New Attraction

Themed to the Disney film Aladdin, Jasmine's Flying Carpets is a ride attraction where guests can soar over Jasmine's garden on a flying carpet. Guests will be able to maneuver their vehicle up and down to a height of 5 meters, and tilt the vehicle forward and backward, as if flying their own magical carpet. This uplifting ride can be enjoyed by all, from young children to adults. Guests can also watch their friends and family on their flying carpet from an elevated viewing deck.

Opening date (tentative):	Summer 2011
Location:	Arabian Coast (next to Sindbad's Storybook Voyage)
Seating:	4 persons (2 persons in 2 rows) per vehicle with a total of 16 vehicles
Total capital invested:	Approximately 2 billion yen

With the addition of this new attraction in summer 2011, there will be a total of 32 facilities at Tokyo DisneySea Park (27 attractions, 2 character greeting facilities, and 3 entertainment facilities).

<Reference> New attractions opening in 2011 at Tokyo Disney Resort:
Mickey's PhilharMagic (Tokyo Disneyland)
Cinderella's Fairy Tale Hall (Tokyo Disneyland)
Jasmine's Flying Carpets (Tokyo DisneySea)

©Disney

Jasmine's Flying Carpets (Image photo)