Name Announced for the Fifth Disney Hotel to Open in Japan Tokyo Disney Resort Toy Story® Hotel

URAYASU, CHIBA—Oriental Land Co., Ltd. announced today that the name of the fifth Disney hotel to open in Japan will be Tokyo Disney Resort Toy Story Hotel. The hotel’s exterior, entrance, lobby and other areas will bring to life the world of toys based on the popular Disney and Pixar Toy Story film series.

The new hotel is situated directly in front of Bayside Station on the Disney Resort Line, providing convenient access to both Tokyo Disneyland® and Tokyo DisneySea® Parks. Guests staying here will find that their dream-filled Disney experience continues from the Parks to the hotel.

Tokyo Disney Resort Toy Story Hotel will be the first “moderate type” Disney hotel in Japan, offering guests a new option between the existing “deluxe type” and “value type” Disney hotels. Offering 595 guest rooms with a unified design and specifications, as well as facilities and services to ensure a comfortable stay, this hotel will offer guests accommodations that are in easier reach compared to a deluxe type hotel.

With this new hotel and the opening of the new themed port, Fantasy Springs, in Tokyo DisneySea, Tokyo Disney Resort® will be able to meet the needs of even more guests and make their stay a richer experience as the Resort continues to grow and evolve.
