Halloween at Tokyo Disney Resort®

URAYASU, CHIBA—The special “Disney Halloween” event will be held at Tokyo Disneyland® and Tokyo DisneySea® Parks from September 15 through October 31, 2022. The Disney hotels, Disney Resort Line, and Ikspiari® will also offer exciting programs themed for Halloween.

This year, at Tokyo Disneyland, Mickey Mouse, Minnie Mouse and their Disney pals will appear in ghost-themed costumes for the “Spooky ‘Boo!’ Parade” as they invite guests into a world of spooky fun. Guests can also enjoy “The Villains Rockin’ Halloween,” a parade that entices the audience into a mysterious, yet entrancing world of Disney Villains. In addition, popular photo locations around the Park will be decorated with Halloween-themed ornaments for a limited time, allowing guests to snap amusing trick photos.

Over at Tokyo DisneySea, Mickey Mouse and his friends will appear in costumes from “Festival of Mystique,” an entertainment program held at Mediterranean Harbor in 2019, as they take part in the “Disney Halloween Greeting.” At Hangar Stage, videos of past Halloween entertainment programs will be screened as mysterious and bewitching characters who starred in them gather, creating a spectacular performance in this new entertainment program “Halloweentime with You.”

At night, the skies above Tokyo Disney Resort will ignite in bright colors during the fireworks spectacular, “Night High Halloween.” In addition, special merchandise designed with playful tricks and menu items that feature pumpkins and other tastes and colors of Halloween will be available, bringing the spirit of Halloween to guests.

Furthermore, both Parks invite guests of all ages to dress up as Disney Characters on any day during this year’s special event period. The Disney hotels, Disney Resort Line and Ikspiari will also be offering exciting programs during the period, ensuring lots of festive fun throughout Tokyo Disney Resort this Halloween.

Night High Halloween

Spectacular fireworks will light up the night sky, enveloping both Parks in a Halloween atmosphere.

Night High Halloween

Note: Entertainment programs are subject to change or cancellation due to weather and other conditions. The number of performances may also change without notice.

SPECIAL MERCHANDISE

Special merchandise featuring fun and modern designs will be offered at both Parks starting September 14. These items exclusive to “Disney Halloween” feature playful themes such as Mickey Mouse and his friends casting spells at the Park, and ghosts enjoying the Parks after closing.

Note: The available merchandise may change without notice. In addition, depending on the circumstances, special merchandise may sell out or be discontinued during the event, or continue to be available after the event period ends.

SPECIAL MENUS

Special menu items and souvenir items themed to the flavors and colors of Halloween will be offered starting September 4.

At Tokyo Disneyland, Sweetheart Cafe will be offering Halloween-colored sandwiches that are filled with delicious autumn flavors. Pumpkin salad, bacon and red cabbage are sandwiched between the cute, yet bewitching black-colored bread, representing the colors and spirit of Halloween. On the souvenir lunch case, images of playful ghosts enjoying the Parks are illustrated with black as the base color.

Special set

In addition, five new special drinks representing the excitement of “Disney Halloween” will be available. Each participating restaurant will feature one of these special drinks that are sure to capture your attention for a fun surprise.

Special drinks

At Tokyo DisneySea, Ristorante di Canaletto will be offering a special full-course meal that portrays the spirit of Halloween and all of its seasonal ingredients, including an appetizer featuring seafood salad and pumpkin tart and pasta with tuna cheek and creamy mushroom red wine sauce.

More special menu items are available in other areas of the Park, including maple-pumpkin churros (also available at Tokyo Disneyland), a chocolate-based special drink with a dark aesthetic, colorful cocktails and more.

Note: Special menu items are subject to change without notice and are only available while stocks last.

DECORATIONS

Halloween decorations will adorn the entrances of both Parks, inviting the guests into the world of “Disney Halloween.”

In addition, popular photo locations at Tokyo Disneyland will be decorated in Halloween-themed ornaments for a limited time, allowing guests to take unique photos.

REGARDING COSTUMES AND ADMISSION AT TOKYO DISNEYLAND AND TOKYO DISNEYSEA

This year, both Parks invite guests of all ages to dress up as Disney Characters on any day during the special event period, as well as on September 14, 2022. Guests can also enjoy dressing up as Marvel Studio film characters (with some exceptions) that have been added to the list of eligible characters from Disney films and other works.

- Guests in costumes other than those listed as eligible characters from Disney films and other works will not be admitted.
- Entering the Park in full Disney character costume is allowed only during the designated period and day mentioned above (children ages 11 and younger allowed on any day).
- Guests may not wear Tokyo Disney Resort cast member costumes.
- Guests are asked to refrain from wearing costumes that cover their face (including costume make-up, fake scars or injuries and beards), that include sharp, long or dangerous objects or parts (such as real or imitation knives, swords, bow and arrows, guns, fireworks), that make it difficult to walk or that are overly revealing.
- Guests may not be allowed to enter the Park if their costume does not follow the above or goes against safety or theme policy.
- A changing space is not available at Tokyo Disney Resort. Guests must dress up and apply make-up at home or at their place of stay before visiting, and are asked to refrain from using the restrooms, multi-function restrooms, or storage locker areas both inside and outside the Park for changing clothes.
- Guests may be required to take off parts of their costume during shows if they block other people’s view.
