Christmas at Tokyo Disney Resort

URAYASU, CHIBA—As the “Tokyo Disney Resort 40th ‘Dream-Go-Round’” anniversary festivities continue at Tokyo Disneyland® Park and Tokyo DisneySea® Park, guests will be able to enjoy a special “Disney Christmas” event at Tokyo Disney Resort® from November 8 through December 25.

Along the parade route at Tokyo Disneyland, guests can enjoy “Disney Christmas Stories,” a parade that features scenes of Disney friends enjoying a merry Christmas. World Bazaar, currently decorated with colorful Dream Garlands, will feature a Christmas tree with the 40th anniversary logo. Additionally, various locations at the Park will be decorated for Christmas, presenting a fantastic holiday season perfect for guests of all ages.

Over at Tokyo DisneySea, guests can enjoy “Disney Christmas Greeting,” a harbor greeting on the waters of Mediterranean Harbor where Mickey Mouse and his friends greet guests with Christmas-themed music and outfits. Additionally, for the first time in four years at American Waterfront, a Christmas tree that lights up after dark and decorated with the 40th anniversary logo will be set up to celebrate this special holiday season during the anniversary year. Decorations in the New York area will feature snow motifs, creating a joyful and heartwarming ambience at the Park.

ENTERTAINMENT PROGRAM AT TOKYO DISNEYLAND

Disney Christmas Stories

Location: Parade Route

Duration: About 45 minutes

Performances: 1 daily

Number of floats: 7

“Disney Christmas Stories”

“Disney Christmas Stories” is a parade full of fantasy that portrays Christmas stories of Disney friends spending precious time with their loved ones. This year, the parade will feature dancers, and the floats will make stops along the Parade Route.

Upon opening the Christmas storybook, heartwarming stories unfold where Disney friends, dressed in Christmas-themed outfits, spend time with their dear ones. The parade comprises seven different stories, including a story of Donald Duck dressed as Santa Claus spending a fun Christmas with his nephews and Daisy Duck, a story of Mickey Mouse and Minnie Mouse celebrating a special Christmas together with their friends, and more.

When the floats make stops along the Parade Route, bells will ring to signify the start of a Christmas party. Guests can join the party by clapping along with the Disney friends to the sound of the bells. In the finale, guests and the Disney friends will celebrate a heartwarming Christmas together as snow falls on the Parade Route.

Note: The parade stops at the following three locations: (1) between Westernland and Fantasyland; (2) the Plaza; (3) between Tomorrowland and Toontown.

DECORATIONS

At Tokyo Disneyland, Christmas-themed garlands will adorn World Bazaar, adding to the colorful 40th anniversary decorations that are currently on display. Moreover, a 15-meter-tall Christmas tree will be set up this year with the 40th anniversary logo, bringing a special celebratory mood to Christmas at the Park. Additionally, ornaments of Li'l RingRing, a Christmas elf, will decorate the tree and create a fantastic atmosphere.

Tokyo Disneyland

Over at Tokyo DisneySea, a 15-meter-tall Christmas tree will return to American Waterfront for the first time in four years. In addition to the 40th anniversary logo decorating it, the tree will light up after dark, bringing a festive ambience to the Park. Other locations at the Park such as Waterfront Park and Mediterranean Harbor will feature beautiful lights and decorations, and Cape Cod will feature its own Christmas tree including ornaments with Duffy and Friends designs.
