New Show “Dreams Take Flight” to Premiere on July 16, 2025 at Hangar Stage in Tokyo DisneySea

URAYASU, CHIBA—Oriental Land Co., Ltd. announced that a new stage show, “Dreams Take Flight,” will premiere on July 16, 2025 at Hangar Stage, located in Lost River Delta at Tokyo DisneySea® Park.

Set in an airplane factory, “Dreams Take Flight” showcases a day where Mickey Mouse and other Disney friends come together to build an airplane, featuring rhythmical songs and dances.

Before the factory opens, Pete, the manager, along with the artisans who take immense pride in building airplanes, gather to kick off their busy day. Donald Duck takes on painting duties, while Chip and Dale manage the tools, and Max serves as the electrician, all working together to complete the airplane as they overcome challenges along the way.

When Minnie Mouse, the airplane’s pilot, arrives and sings about her dream of soaring through the skies, the final preparations commence. Guests are invited to join Mickey in assembling the airplane, creating a sense of camaraderie in the venue, culminating in a grand finale to celebrate the airplane’s completion.

During the show, characters from Walt Disney Animation Studios and Pixar Animation Studios films will also make appearances, resonating with the dreams and feelings of Minnie, the pilot, and the artisans, adding color to the scenes.

An exciting show awaits guests, depicting a day filled with Disney friends as they work hard to build an airplane, featuring a blend of engaging scenes and entertaining performances.
