celebration at Tokyo Disney Resort

Presented at both parks during this special event period will be “New Year's Greeting,” an entertainment program where Mickey Mouse and his friends, clad in traditional Japanese attire, greet guests to festive music in celebration of the new year.

At the entrances to both parks, traditional New Year's kadomatsu decorations will be on display featuring designs of Mickey, as well as Horace Horsecollar from the Walt Disney Animation Studios short film, The Band Concert, to represent the Chinese Zodiac animal of horse for 2026. Additionally, guests can enjoy a variety of special merchandise and menus themed to the New Year, and the colorful fireworks of “New Day, New Dreams” to enhance the festive mood.

The Disney hotels will feature special New Year's menus, while the Disney Resort Line will offer day passes with two different designs.

Additionally, for a limited period from December 27, 2025 until further notice, the “it's a small world” attraction will once again present “it's a small world with Groot,” featuring characters from across the Marvel Cinematic Universe.
