Tokyo DisneySea Attraction Indiana Jones Adventure®: Temple of the Crystal Skull Resuming Operations after Renovations from November 30

URAYASU, CHIBA — Tokyo Disney Resort® announced that the Indiana Jones Adventure®: Temple of the Crystal Skull attraction at Tokyo DisneySea® Park will resume operations on November 30, 2026. Upon completion of the latest major refurbishment, the attraction will reopen with a new cinematic soundtrack and projection effects to provide even more excitement for guests.

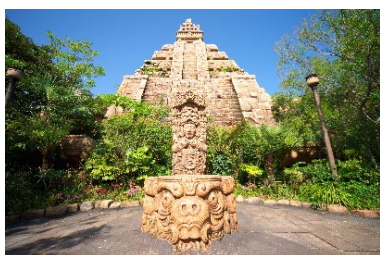

Indiana Jones Adventure: Temple of the Crystal Skull is a ride-type attraction where guests board a jungle transport vehicle and race through the ruins of an ancient temple that towers over the banks of Lost River Delta.

American archeologist Dr. Indiana Jones was investigating this ancient temple, rumored to be the location for the legendary Fountain of Youth, when his assistant Paco organized a tour into its depths despite a warning from Dr. Indiana Jones.

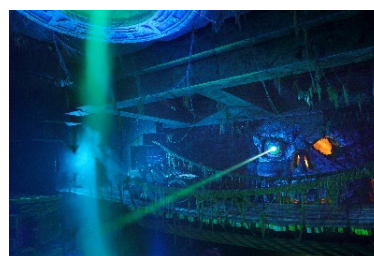

Guests can look forward to a thrilling tour that unfolds within the ancient temple.

- Indiana Jones Adventure®: Temple of the Crystal Skull is presented by Panasonic Electric Works Co., Ltd.
